

CALLEBAUT®

BELGIUM 1911

CALLEBAUT CHOCOLATE HISTORY

Callebaut chocolate is for people who demand nothing less than the best chocolate for their baking and dessert delicacies. Since they made their first products in 1911 in the small Belgian town of Wieve, Callebaut has been using the finest cocoa beans in each recipe to create delightful chocolate for bakeries, restaurants and home consumers. Their experts carefully select bean blends from West Africa, South America and Asia to create recipes that have just the right fullness, fruitiness and other notes. At World Wide Chocolate, you can experience the bliss in every bite when you buy Callebaut chocolate from the world's leading high-quality cocoa manufacturer.

